June 10, 2014

The meeting was called to order by Roger. The minutes were read and approved. There was no updated Treasurer's Report. Old business was discussed next. There was some discussion on the Cemetery Walk. Susan reported School Homecoming would be Sept 26th this year. We are looking at the 1st or 2nd weekend in October as a possibility. Next the junction was discussed. Flowers came from Doris Ritter. Flowers were planted by Maryanne and Theresa. Logan watered for part of May will continue into June. July-September have open spots for volunteers.

Then there was the Citywide Garage Sale report. We had 33 people register. Homecoming was discussed next. June 20, Friday evening: community band concert in the park, pie/ice-cream & floats followed by the kids dance. June 21st Saturday: The Lions Breakfast, Made With Honey Contest, Trunk Sales and Disc Golf Tournament "The Perfect Storm". June 22nd Sunday: Catholic Church Breakfast and community church service in Gordon's Grove. Susan will be taking care of the PR. She added there would be a radio spot on W.C.A.Z. June 18th.

The bridge report followed homecoming discussion. Roger shared sample pictures. He is going to the park board. He'll bring pictures. He will also bring a letter of intent to go forward w/ the project.

Bills were next on the agenda. Maryanne had a bill for "All-in-One" used at the junction for Rose care. Susan approved the bill. The bill was seconded. Also there was a bill presented for the internet for our webpage. The bill will be reviewed.

Present at the meeting were 2 visitors: Jim Wright and George Sparrow. They represented the Hamilton, IL VFW. They asked for The Veterans Memorial to be part of H.C.D.C. (Hamilton Community Development Coalition) non-for profit organization. Dean Pfeiferling will maintain Oakwood Cemetery and the 136/96 junction for a fee of $85/month. The money will come from the Veterans Memorial Fund. George Sparrow, Perry Sutter (VFW), Doug Humphry and Dick Hartweg (H.C.D.C.) will be the signers to the account. The next meeting will be July 8th at 7 p.m. at Hamilton City Hall. The meeting was adjourned.
