

Hamilton Community Development Coalition
October 8, 2013

The meeting was called to order by Roger. The minutes were read. A motion was made to accept the minutes. The minutes were approved. The Treasurer's report was given and approved.

Old business was discussed. The junction is still being watered. Roger and Logan will continue watering as needed. The Roses at the junction are waiting to be pruned.

The bridge report was given. Mayor Lowman was present to hear the bridge report. There was some discussion. Roger explained the timeline of all the work that has been done on the bridge project. No final decisions have been made. In the near future the matter will be discussed at a City Council meeting. There will be a more final decisions made following that meeting.

Theresa gave a report on the Fall City Wide Garage Sales. We had 27 sign up. The money from the sales has been deposited.

Susan gave a report on the upcoming Vendor Blender Dec. 7th. Participating vendors will have to provide their own tables. Susan shared she will need a back-up to chair this event. Roger agreed to help out. The date still stands. The hours will be 10 am until 2 Or 3 pm. This is not final on the ending time. The prices have not been set. Eric W. or Logan S. will plan on creating a face book page for the event.

Banking business is in order with the exception of one left to sign the bank card. New business was discussed. Bills were for $15 from the Daily Gate for ads for the fall city wide garage sales. The 2nd bill was $65 from the Shopper. This was for the fall citywide garage sales. Motions were made to accept and pay the bills. We are still waiting on the bill for the flowers for the junction.

Susan shared some information about the MR. For next summer... there may be pontoon rides or a dinner theatre. The river museum is looking for a new location. In addition Susan shared that Bev Gray would like to add the history of the Addie May to our H.C.D.C. website. Susan will be meeting with Bev & Deb Gray to go thru the materials/information. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday Nov. 12th, 20-13 at 7pm at City Hall. The meeting was adjourned.
